

The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

The Introit Deus in loco sancto suo Ps. 68:6-7, 36. Ps 68:1 [7-9,19,33,34,36]

-tone VII

Antiphon: God is in his holy dwelling place, *
He makes a home where men can live in unity.

How wonderful is God in his holy places! *
the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people!

Psalm: Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; *
let those who hate him flee before him.

[O God, when you went forth before your people, *
when you marched through the wilderness,

The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain, ↓
at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, *
at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; *
you refreshed the land when it was weary.

Blessed be the Lord day by day, *
the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens

Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; *
sing praises to the Lord.

He rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; *
he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.

How wonderful is God in his holy places! *
the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people! Blessed be God!]

Gloria Patri. Glo-ry to the Father, and to the Son, ↓
and to the Holy Spirit, *

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever,
for all ages of ages. Amen Antiphon:

The Kyrie or Kyrie Litany

The Gloria

The Collect:

Almighty and ever-living God, in the abundance of your love you always grant more than we desire or deserve, pour forth your mercy upon us, forgiving in us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving to us those good things for which we are unworthy to ask; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for all ages of ages. Amen

The First Reading: Baruch 3:9-19

Thus says the Lord... Hear the commandments of life, O Israel; give ear, and learn wisdom! Why is it, O Israel, why is it that you are in the land of your enemies, that you are growing old in a foreign country, that you are defiled with the dead, that you are counted among those in Hades? You have forsaken the fountain of wisdom. If you had walked in the way of God, you would be living in peace forever. Learn where there is wisdom, where there is strength, where there is understanding, so that you may at the same time discern where there is length of days, and life, where apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain.

The Alleluia Exultate Deo, Ps. 80:1,2

Laudate

Sing with joy to God our strength * and raise a loud shout to the God of Jacob.

Raise a song and sound the timbrel, *
the merry harp, and the lyre. Alleluia

The Gospel: Mark 7:31-37

At that time...Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

The Nicene Creed

Offertory Exultabo te, Domine, Ps.30:1,2

TONE VII

I will exalt you, O LORD, ↓

because you have lifted me up * and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

O LORD my God, I cried out to you, *

and you restored me to health.

The Prayer over the gifts:

O Lord, look down in mercy upon our worship, that the gifts we offer may be well-pleasing in your sight, and be a support in our weakness; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for all ages of ages. Amen

The Preface of the Holy Trinity

It is truly right and just, our joy and helpful to salvation, that we, always and everywhere, give thanks to you, O Lord, holy Father, Almighty and eternal God:

Who with your only begotten Son and the Holy Spirit are one God, one Lord; not in the unity of a single person, but in the Trinity of a single nature.

For that which we believe on your revelation concerning your glory, that same we believe of your Son, that same we believe of the Holy Spirit, without any difference.

So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, we shall adore the Persons as distinct, their unity in being, and their equality in majesty.

This the angels the cherubim and the seraphim do praise; day by day they cry out unceasingly saying as with one voice:...

Before the Blessing of Peace

Priest: May God Almighty cleanse and purify the secrets of your hearts, and bestow even greater blessings upon you.

People: Amen

Priest: May He set you free from all the dangers of this present life, and clothe you with the garments of courage and virtue.

People: Amen

Priest: That, upheld by the help of God Himself, you may serve Him with such devotion here on earth, that, in eternity, you may be united with Him for ever.

People: Amen

Priest: May the Lord God Almighty, Whose glorious Kingdom endures for ever, be pleased to bestow these blessings upon you; and...

Priest: The ✠ Peace of The Lord be always with you.

People: And with your spirit.

The Communion Honora Dominum de tua substantia. Pro 3:9,10

TONE VIII

Honor the LORD with your substance *
and with the first fruits of all your produce;
then your barns will be filled with plenty, *
and your vats will be bursting with wine.

The Postcommunion Collect:

O Lord, in the receiving of these Holy Mysteries, may we be restored in mind and body by your grace, that we may glory in divine healing; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for all ages of ages.

Amen
